General Policies

- Eligibility: Member pricing is for active members of Jewish for Good's Health and Wellness Center and Jewish for Good members (made an annual campaign contribution in the previous fiscal year). Rental may be refused to groups whose mission and goals conflict with those of Jewish for Good.
- Rental times: The use of the specified room/s during the hours necessary for the event, which includes set up and clean up.
- Food: Outside food and catering is permitted given it complies with our Kashrut Policy (see below). Kitchen usage is an additional fee and must comply with Kashrut Policy. Although there is not an approved vendor list, contact us for suggestions of caterers. Alcohol is allowed provided renter ensures everyone is of legal drinking age. No alcohol sales without an ABC permit.
- Clean up expectations: Renter is responsible for removing anything brought in, including decorations, and placing all garbage and recycling into proper receptacles. Candles, confetti, smoke machines, jelly beads, and glitter are not permitted. If damage occurs to the space, additional fees may be incurred.
- Insurance: Renter, upon request, shall provide general liability insurance, satisfactory to Jewish for Good, to cover the facilities for property and personal damage during the event. Furthermore, all such insurance policies will name Jewish for Good as an additional insured. In no circumstance shall the personal and bodily injury liability be less than $250,000 for one person or $1,000,000 for persons affected by a single occurrence, or shall property damage liability be less than $250,000.

Payment policies

- Deposit: 50% (or $250 for rentals over $500) is due at the time of contract signing to reserve the space. Deposit is refundable up to 60 days before event.
- Balance: Balance is due 3 days before day of event.
- Payment methods: Individuals are required to put a credit card on file at time of deposit, which will automatically be charged the balance and any fees for damages, hours outside of contract, etc. Businesses and non-profits may request an invoice. Recurring rentals may request monthly invoices.
- Cancelation: Cancelations made with less than 60 days notice will forfeit deposit. Cancelations made with less than 3 business days notice are responsible for full charge of the booking.

Event spaces additional policies

- Hourly Minimums: The Schechter Community Hall and Singer Family Atrium are subject to a 5-hour minimum per day on Saturdays and Sundays and a 3-hour minimum per day on Monday-Friday. Rental time begins when space is first accessed (start decorating, vendors arrive, etc), not at the time guests arrive. To request early drop off of supplies or equipment, please inquire about availability.
- Rental Includes: Use of tables and chairs and basic set-up by Jewish for Good staff prior to event based on layout plans provided 10 days in advance of the event. A walk through with staff is available by request. Available equipment:
  - Eight 72" Round Tables
  - Eight 8' Rectangular Tables
  - Wood Back (100) and Stackable Chairs (50)
  - Podium
  - Table Linens (black) by advance request
  - Built-in projector with sound in Schechter Community Hall and Israel Center
  - Basic supplies such as ice, trash bags, scissors, tape.
- Not included, so please plan ahead:
  - A/V in the Atrium
  - Paper products (cups, plates, cutlery, etc), serving dishes and utensils
  - Decorations
- Add-on options:
  - Indoor Stage (8'x16') - $200 flat fee
  - Manager on Duty - $25 per hour (required for events happening when building is closed, optional during building hours)
  - Security - $50/hr per officer (at least 1 week's notice is necessary)
  - Coffee service within Jcafe hours
- Atrium rentals: Note, when Atrium is rented during business hours, rented area can be cordoned off to the general public, but members and guests will still have access to lobby and pathways to other spaces.

Meeting spaces additional policies

- Set up: Any configuration of the tables and chairs already in the Israel Center, Meeting Room, or Senior Lounge is included in rental. Removing or bringing in additional furniture is an additional $50 Set Up Fee.
- Audio/Visual: The Israel Center has a built in projector, and the Senior Lounge has TV screens to which a laptop can be connected. Each A/V set up has an instruction guide and all necessary cords. Please inquire about availability of a laptop if not bringing one. Staff may not be available to help set up A/V, so please leave plenty of time to set up before event.

Athletic spaces additional policies

- Gym usage: Gym is for athletic events only. Tables and chairs, food and beverage, decoration, and high heels are not allowed. Basketball hoops are included. Other sports equipment (eg pickleball or volleyball nets) may be rented for additional fees.
- Pool Availability: Pool rentals are available to school/club teams and instructional programs only, not to individuals for private events. Pool rentals are generally not available June-Aug. Unfortunately, due to capacity and safety, we are not able to offer pool birthday parties.
- Certified lifeguards: Renters must ensure there is a lifeguard (certified by an accredited program such as the Red Cross) on the deck at all times. User is responsible for the supervision of said lifeguard, who should have no responsibilities other than guarding while on duty. Lifeguards are not provided by Jewish for Good.
- Pool Maintenance: Jewish for Good is responsible for maintaining chemicals, pool equipment, etc and will provide a safety orientation before beginning of rental period (AEDs, backboards, etc). Renters may be responsible for removing and replacing pool cover, in which case training will be provided.

Kashrut Policies

- Whether catered or cooked at home, food brought in for private events are not required to follow general kosher guidelines or be certified kosher.
- Pork and shellfish are not permitted in our facilities (including bacon, pork hotdogs, pork sausage, lard, shrimp, scallops, crab, lobster, oysters, etc).
- Our kitchen is kosher dairy (fish but not shellfish is allowed). No meat, poultry, or shellfish may be brought into the kitchen, including into refrigerators. The kitchen is closed during Passover.
- At the discretion of Jewish for Good Management, a caterer or outside group may use the kitchen to prepare kosher meat or poultry, by making arrangements to kasher the kitchen before and after use at their own expense and under the supervision of Management.
